provide this information you will be scheduled for the earliest available date at a location selected by the BRE.

- If you do not provide a date on line #11, you will be scheduled for the earliest available date in the area chosen.
- Exam date notification — Processing timeframes are listed at www.bre.ca.gov. These timeframes estimate when the processing of your application should be completed.
 - If you have not received an examination confirmation notice within the timeframes listed on our Web site, you can obtain your scheduled date through eLicensing.
- If you have not yet been assigned an exam date or received a deficiency letter and your application was submitted prior to the processing timeframes, check with your bank or credit card company to assure that BRE has processed your fee.
- Reasonable Accommodation Request — Applicants with limitations requiring special accommodation must submit a Special Accommodation Request for Examination (RE 413), as well as the required documentation as noted on RE 413, with an exam application and mail or fax the application, documentation, and fee to BRE for processing. Do not attempt to schedule a reasonable accommodation exam on eLicensing, as it does not provide such service. Compliance with special requests may be limited by scheduling constraints.
- Use eLicensing to reschedule an examination, review your examination results and records, request a duplicate schedule or result notice, and change your examination mailing address.
- If you are simultaneously making application for both the salesperson and broker examinations, you must submit a separate package (application, qualifying documentation and fee) for each examination to be scheduled. Fees are not transferable from one exam to another and will not be refunded.
- Exam fee valid for two years — An original application and initial fee is valid for a two year period. Missing requirements may be submitted anytime within the two year period after BRE receipt of your application/fee. A new application, fee, and current qualifications will be required if you fail to qualify and pass the examination during that two year period.

CURRENTLY OR PREVIOUSLY LICENSED?

- If you currently have a real estate salesperson license in California, or if your license expired less than two years ago, you are not eligible to take a salesperson examination. If you have renewal rights, you may obtain a new license through the renewal process.

EXAMINATION REQUIREMENTS

In addition to this application and fee, salesperson applicants must submit an official transcript or credit certificate showing proof of completion of a three semester or four quarter unit college-level course or an equivalent BRE approved course in Real Estate Principles, Real Estate Practice and one additional course which should be chosen from the following list of courses: Accounting, Business Law, Common Interest Developments, Computer Applications in Real Estate, Escrows, Legal Aspects of Real Estate, Mortgage Loan Brokering & Lending, Property Management, Real Estate Appraisal, Real Estate Economics, Real Estate Finance and Real Estate Office Administration.

The three semester-unit or four quarter-unit courses must be completed through a regionally accredited college or university or an approved BRE private course sponsor. Course(s) completed through a foreign institution of higher learning must be evaluated by a foreign credentials evaluation service approved by BRE.

Refer to Instructions To License Applicants handbook for further information and examination rules. The handbook is available on the BRE Web site or from any BRE office.

FINGERPRINT INFORMATION

One set of classifiable electronic fingerprints is required from every real estate license applicant. Fingerprints must be submitted through the California Department of Justice (DOJ) Live Scan Program. A Live Scan Service Request (RE 237) is available at www.bre.ca.gov. Out of state residents either need to make arrangements to get their fingerprints taken at a live scan service provider in California or get fingerprinted out of state using the FBI Applicant Fingerprint Card (FD-258 Rev. 5/99), provided upon passing the examination. Out of state examination applicants may request a blank fingerprint card by contacting the Licensing Section at 877-373-4542. Fingerprint processing fees are not refunded if an applicant fails to pass the examination.

SUBVERSION OF EXAMINATION

BRE is affected by Sections 123, 123.5 and 496 of the Business and Professions Code (B&P) which relate to test security and provide that BRE may deny, suspend, restrict or revoke the license of an applicant or licensee who subverts or attempts to subvert a licensing examination.

In addition to any other penalties, a person found guilty of violating B&P Code §123 shall be liable for the actual damages sustained by the agency administering the examination not to exceed ten thousand dollars ($10,000) and the costs of litigation.

General powers of the Commissioner, Sections 10050, 10071, and 10075 of the Business and Professions Code authorize the maintenance of this information.

Business and Professions Code Sections 30, 31(e) and 494.5(d) require each real estate licensee to initially provide to the Bureau of Real Estate his or her social security number which will be furnished to the Franchise Tax Board. The Franchise Tax Board will use your number to establish identification exclusively for tax purposes. These code sections also require that each application for a new license or renewal provides notification on the application, that the Board of Equalization and the Franchise Tax Board will share taxpayer information with the Bureau of Real Estate, and that failure to pay tax obligations may result in a suspension or denial of a license. The Board of Equalization and Franchise Tax Board require the Bureau to collect social security numbers and federal taxpayer identification numbers for the purposes of matching the names of the 500 largest tax delinquencies pursuant to Section 7063 or 19195 of the Revenue and Taxation Code. Your social security numbers and federal taxpayer identification number shall not be deemed public records and shall not be open to the public for inspection.
